Lunch with Shawn Chavira Associate Director of Transit Services, USC

Named a top 40 under 40 Transportation employee!

We are please to invite you to join Shawn A. Chavira, a transportation professional with over 12 years of experience in transportation contracting Management, named by Mass Transit Magazine as one of the "Top 40 under 40 Transportation employees in the nation" for lunch! In addition to his current position, managing the USC Bus and Campus Cruiser services, Shaw is a member of the City of Alhambra Planning Commission and recently served as a Homeland Security Specialist with LA Metro. He will share his experiences and advice for students, in particular for those considering a career in transportation.

We encourage you to join Shawn and your fellow students for lunch, and learn from a mid-career transportation professional!
